Trio Anima Mundi's 2024 Series - Forgotten Romantics - continues the ensemble's acclaimed Piano Trio Archaeology with rare performances of beautiful music from the 19th and 20th centuries. In March, hear the lush romanticism of Herzogenberg's second Piano Trio, coupled with the early work of his famous pupil, Dame Ethel Smyth. In May, be whisked away to France, with the ravishing duo Sonata by Ravel presented alongside Dubois passionate first Trio. In September, the despairing darkness of the 2nd Piano Trio of Shostakovich is juxtaposed with the jewel-like 7th Trio of Reissiger - part of TAM's ongoing The Reissiger Project.
